

Imagine spending 5 hours a day just
to get 5 gallons of
dirty water.

water1st.org

water1st
international

8-year-olds should
be going to school,
not walking for water.

water1st.org

water1st
international

$75 provides a child
with clean water and
a toilet for life.

water1st.org

water1st
international

Today, 200 million
women and girls are
walking for water.

water1st.org

water1st
international

5 million girls cannot go to school because they are carrying water.

water1st.org

water1st
international

Today, 5,000 children will die from preventable water-related diseases.

water1st.org

water1st
international

Imagine if the journey
to your kitchen sink
took 5 hours.

water1st.org

water1st
international

Imagine bathing your child in a filthy river.
Mothers in Bangladesh
do this every day.

water1st.org

water1st
international

Imagine walking from
the Space Needle to Lake Washington to
wash your clothes.

water1st.org

water1st
international

Imagine strapping a 25-pound water container
onto your daughter's back
every morning.

water1st.org

water1st
international

If you lived in Honduras, you'd have to make
this walk for water again
later today.

water1st.org

water1st
international

If every American gave $5 a month, we would have clean water for
ALL in 5 years.

water1st.org

water1st
international

6-year-olds should
be going to school,
not walking for water.

water1st.org

water1st
international

Just $5 a month
provides a child with
clean water for life.

water1st.org

water1st
international

The amount of time women in Ethiopia spend carrying water is the same time as a full-time job. But their only pay check is dirty water.

water1st.org

water1st
international